About Our Products

Innovation & Technology

GIG brings together the best of Japanese ionization systems and modern water purification techniques. Every product is crafted with precision, ensuring a perfect pH balance, Negative ORP in Water and mineral retention that supports immunity and overall wellness.

Quality & Trust

Each GIG product undergoes multiple stages of quality testing and certification to meet international standards. Our promise of purity and performance is backed by thousands of satisfied customers across India.

Why Does the Human Body Need a Negative ORP in Water?

The human body needs to have a negative ORP and be on the alkaline side.

What is a Good ORP Level?

The more negative the ORP value, the more anti-oxidant properties are present in the alkaline water you are drinking.

Alkaline Water Benefits for Health

Alkaline water is a super hydrator with awesome anti-oxidation benefits. This means it can hydrate your system 5 times more efficiently than regular water. It has great immunity-boosting benefits as its anti-oxidant properties.
